

Top: This sideboard arrangement is just the right complement for our brunch before the races setting (above) - or for any special gathering. The white horses are by the Nymphenburg Porcelain Co. and contribute beautifully to the overall theme of the party. The double canape stand by Sandra Jordan Wine Country Tradition provides the perfect place for special treats, while the rose petal-filled hurricanes are by Simon Pearce. The fruit bowl and cake stand are both by Juliska. Above: This stunning dining room setting is the ideal design for a special brunch before the races this spring season! The porcelain dinner and salad plates are in the Silks pattern by Haviland Limoges, and were designed and made especially for L.V. Harkness. Providing a wonderful complement, the bread and butter plates are in the Green Leaf pattern by Anna Weatherley Designs. The presentation plates and Russian River water pitcher are by Sandra Jordan Wine Country Tradition, as are the silver cups with berries around the centerpiece, which is a pewter champagne bucket with horse head handles by Boardman in the Churchill Downs pattern, here filled with gorgeous blooms. The Sharyn Blond linens are of special note, as they were designed and created for L.V. Harkness in the Madeira Islands. Finally, the exquisite crystal stems and tumblers are by Queen Lace Crystal Co. in their Thoroughbred pattern, and the candlesticks are Simon Pearce. This setting was created by Sue Ann Truitt and Linda Tzouanakis of L.V. Harkness in Lexington. Flowers provided by Best of Flowers in Lexington. Photography by Tim Conaway.
